An Echo of the Battle of Pea Ridge.

William Jones, an old and well known citizen of Delano, Madison county, Ark., had a rather exciting adventure on the morning of Dec. 4. He, with his son, William, had been making a tour of five or six counties east of this in a two horse wagon, and on their return they camped for the night on Pea Ridge battlefield. On arising in the morning they made a big log fire and were waiting for their breakfast when a tremendous explosion took place. A chunk of wood struck the old gentleman on the head, knocking him down, while at the same instant a larger stick from the campfire struck the younger man on the shoulders. Daylight revealed a hole 6 or 8 inches deep, where a 10 or 12 pound parrott shell had been reposing underground ever since the battle fought March 7 and 8, 1862, nearly 33 years ago. With the exception of a dent in the tire of the wagon and a broken felly no further damage was done, and after catching the horses that had run away the old gentleman gathered up a few pieces of the shell for mementos and proceeded on his journey.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Vigorous Swordfish.

The Norwegian bark Lorenzo, which recently arrived at Pensacola, Fla., had a sample of the strength of a swordfish. Through the metal sheathing of her hull, then through six inches of planking and penetrating the inner ceiling about three inches the fish had driven its snout, or "sword," the result being a leak which kept the crew at the pumps for six hours a day. The sword was about 2½ inches in circumference at the point and 5 inches at the end where it had broken off, the piece being about 20 inches long.

A Monument of Bankruptcy.

The great tower at Wembley park, north of London, which is intended to be much higher than the Eiffel tower, promises to become a monument of bankruptcy. The company has spent $500,000, and the first platform has not yet been reached.

On Reading.

To sit down in a chair without an object is to jump into a thicket of temptations. A vacant hour is always the devil's hour. When time hangs heavy, the wings of the spirit flap heavily and slow Then it is that a book is a strong tower, nay, a very church, with angels lurking among the leaves as if they were so many niches. Reading helps to make conversation harmless, by making it less petty and censorious, by furnishing us with other topics than our neighbors' faults and foibles. It is very hard for a person who does not like reading to talk much in company without sinning. Furthermore, a taste for reading often hinders our taking the wrong side in practical questions which are mooted in the world, but bear upon the church. It does this either by the information it has enabled us to obtain on the subject itself, or by making our instincts accurate and sensitive through our familiarity with right principles.—Faber.

Both Wicked.

"My husband," said the large, fleshy lady, "has a habit of marking paragraphs in the paper that say mean things about women."

"So you will not fail to see them, eh? Still that is not as mean a trick as mine plays. He cuts them all out. Then I have to get another paper only to find that I have been fooled again."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Tragic Complication.

"So you refuse me!" said Charley Callow bitterly.

"Of course," said the charming widow.

"Won't you even be a sister to me?"

"No. I'm engaged to marry your father. I'll be a mother to you."—Washington Star.

A pair of spectacles cost in the sixteenth century at least $5.50. It was fashionable to wear them, and the larger they were the better they were supposed to support the dignity of the wearer.

"And you declined?"

"You are an ass, your honor."—Kolnische Volkszeitung.

In a State of Bankruptcy

—is the condition of our system if the liver becomes inactive so that the germs and poisons can accumulate within the body. Keep the liver and bowels active and we're in a condition of healthy prosperity and have sufficiently well invested capital to draw upon in the hour of need. The liver filters out the poisonous germs which enter the system. Just so surely as the liver regulates the system, so do Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate the liver. Keep this in mind, and you solve the problem of good health and good living. The "Pleasant Pellets" have a tonic, strengthening effect upon the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, which effectually cures Biliousness, Sick Headache, Costiveness, or Constipation, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Bad Taste in Mouth, Sour Risings from Stomach, and will often cure Dyspepsia. The "Pellets" are tiny, because the vegetable extracts are refined and concentrated. Easy in action; no griping as with old-fashioned pills. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve the distress arising from overeating, nothing equals one of these little "Pellets."

MRS. MELISSA ATWATER, of Steuben, Washington Co., Me., writes: "As regards the little 'Pellets,' I think I could not do without them. I do not like to be without them in the house. I have spoken very highly to friends and neighbors of them, and many are taking them through my advertising them. I will say they are the best pill I can take, especially for an after-dinner pill, I think they have no equal."

THE INCOME TAX.

The Act of Congress entitled "An Act to reduce taxation, to provide revenue for the Government, and for other purposes," provides that from and after the first day of January, 1895, and until the first day of January, 1900, there shall be assessed, levied, collected and paid annually upon the gains, profits and income received in the preceding calendar year by every citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing therein, whether said gains, profits, or income be derived from any kind of property, rents, interest, dividends, or salaries, or from any profession, trade, employment or vocation, carried on in the United States or elsewhere, or from any source whatever, a tax of two per centum on the amount so derived over and above $4,000, and a like tax should be levied, collected and paid annually upon the gains, profits, and income from all property owned and of every business, trade, or profession carried on in the United States by persons residing without the United States. The first taxable year under the provisions of the law is the calendar year, 1894, and the tax on incomes due and payable on or before the first day of July, 1895, shall be computed on the taxable incomes received in said year 1894. It is made the duty of all persons of lawful age, having an annual income of more than $3,500, computed on the basis prescribed by the act, to render a list of returns on or before the first Monday of March, of each year, in such form as may be directed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Persons having less than $3,500 annual income are not required to make such return.

In estimating the gains, profits and income of any person for the purposes of taxation, there shall be included the gains, profits and income derived from the interest upon notes, bonds and other securities, except such bonds of the United States as are by law exempt from Federal taxation; profits realized within the year from sales of real estate purchased within two years previous to the close of the year for which income is estimated; interest received or accrued upon all notes, bonds, mortgages, or other forms of indebtedness, whether paid or not, if good and collectable. The amount of all premium on bonds, notes or coupons; the amount of sales of live stock, sugar, cotton, wool, butter, cheese, meats, hay, grain and other productions, being the growth or produce of the estate of such person, less the amount expended in the purchase or production of said stock or produce, and not including any part thereof consumed by the family; money, and the value of all personal property acquired by gift or inheritance; all other gains, profits and income derived from any source whatever, except that portion of the salary or pay received for services in the civil, military, naval or other services of the United States, including Senators and Representatives in Congress, from which the tax has been deducted. The law provides that in computing incomes there shall be deducted the necessary expenses actually incurred in carrying on any business, occupation or profession, and all interest due or paid within the year by such person on existing indebtedness. All national, State, county, school and municipal taxes, shall be deducted from the gains, profits or income of the person who actually paid the same, whether such person be owner, tenant or mortgagor. Losses actually sustained during the year, incurred in trade, or arising from fires, storms, or shipwreck, and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, shall be deducted and also debts ascertained to be worthless, but excluding all estimated depreciation of values and losses within a year on sales of real estate purchased within two years previous to the year for which income is estimated. It is provided, however, that no deductions shall be made for any amount paid out for new buildings, permanent improvements, or betterments, made to improve the value of any property or estate; and it is further provided that in computing the income of any person, corporation, company or association, there shall not be included the amount received from any corporation, company or association, as dividends, if the tax of 2 per centum has been paid upon its net profits by said corporation, company or association, as required by the Act.

Regarding corporations the operating and business expenses to be deducted from the gross receipts include interest paid or accrued within the year or bonded or other indebtedness, losses actually sustained during the year, arising from fires, storms, or shipwreck, not compensated for by insurance or otherwise; State, county or municipal taxes; salaries, compensation or pay of officers or other persons employed during the year; rents or other necessary repairs and other necessary expenses.

It will be observed that the provisions of this Act are not oppressive. Only those persons whose gains, profits or income exceed $4,000 a year are required to pay it. If a person or corporation does a business of $50,000 or $250,000 a year and derives no profit from the business the person or corporation is not required to pay the tax and only those whose profits or income are at least $3,500 a year have to make a statement to the collector. Though the weathy and their newspaper organs opposed the tax it is believed that when the people understand it it will be one of the most popular methods of getting revenue for the support of the Government yet devised.

A NEW RAILROAD BILL.

Congressman Harris of Kansas has introduced a bill providing for a settlement between the United States and the Pacific Railroad Companies. It provides for the Government taking possession of the roads through forfeiture, and buying up stations, terminals, etc., under condemnatory proceedings. The bill provides for the payment of the first mortgages on the roads and for stations, etc., in legal tender notes to be issued especially for the purpose. When the Government becomes absolute owner of the roads they are to be leased to the highest bidder for operation.

Representative Harris is a member of the Committee on Pacific Railroads and will endeavor to get a favorable report on his bill at an early day. There is no probability of its becoming a law, and probably it is as well for the people along the roads that it should not. If the Government gets control of the Pacific roads and leases them for operation to the highest bidder the "all that the traffic will bear" policy will be continued. In China, Egypt, Turkey and other semi-civilized nations, taxes are collected on the principle upon which Mr. Harris proposes to operate the railroads. The Government lets a province or district to the highest bidder, who compels the people to pay all the taxes they can possibly raise, as the more he can squeeze out of them the greater his profit. If the Government let railroads on that principle the operators would exact the highest possible rates from those who patronized the road and the people would be no better off, so far as cheap transportation is concerned, than they are now.

THE FIVE HUNDRED MILLION BOND BILL.

In the debate on the bill now before the House of Representatives to authorize the issue of $500,000,000 in gold bonds, Representative Brosius of Pennsylvania appealed to his Republican colleagues in Congress to support the bill. Representative Newlands of Nevada, McRae of Arkansas and others spoke in opposition to the bill, and Bland of Missouri gave notice of a substitute. The proposition of the gold men to saddle the country with a bonded debt of $500,000,000 more to keep $100,000,000 of idle gold in the Treasury is intended to prevent any legislation whatever in the interest of silver. No Congressman who desires to legislate in the interest of the people will vote for such a measure. The bill is now subject to amendment under the five minute rule, and unless a substitute is accepted a vote will be taken on the original bill to-day.

HONOLULU AFFAIRS.

The Ex Queen Abdicates—The Royalist Leaders Convicted of Treason.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 6.—The steamer Australia brings advices from Honolulu to January 30th. The news states that ex-Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii has abdicated in favor of the Republic. The abdication document was drawn up by A. S. Hartwell, at the request of the ex-Queen and was presented to President Dole on January 26th, and stated, by Liliuokalini, that it was executed freely and voluntarily. She says she takes this step partly for the sake of misguided Hawaiians, who recently engaged in rebellion against the Republic in an attempt to restore her to the throne. She disclaims a desire to avoid punishment by this declaration, and declares that the late monarchy has finally ended and absolving her followers from allegiance and admitting that the Republic is the only lawful Government of the Islands. She asks for executive clemency for the rebels, and says she wants to live in absolute privacy.

Wilcox and several other rebels have been convicted of treason by a military court, which is still is session. Sentences had not been pronounced when the steamer sailed.

Martial law is still maintained.

The Government answered the ex-Queen's letter, stating that her abdication could not exempt her from personal and individual liability for conspiracy and rebellion.

THE DEBS CONSPIRACY CASE.

Count Pullman Wanted as a Witness.

CHICAGO, February 6.—At the opening of the Debs conspiracy case to-day the Deputy Marshall, who spent yesterday attempting to summon George M. Pullman as a witness for the defense, reported that he was unable to locate the palace car manufacturer, but was finally informed that he had gone to Washington. The defense then called President Debs of the A. R. U.

Debs reviewed the history and purposes of the A. R. U. The Pullman strike, he said, was without his consent and contrary to his advice.

A DEFICIT IN CALIFORNIA.

Conservative Estimates Place it at a Million and a Half.

SACRAMENTO, February 6.—The startling discovery has been made that there is an immense deficit in the finances of the State, and that it will have to be promptly met by legislation. At the instance of Governor Budd a thorough and exhaustive inquiry is being made into the subject, and the true state of affairs will in all probability be communicated to the Legislature in a special message. Conservative estimates place the existing deficit at alarming figures, exceeding $1,500,000.

Now is the Time.

S. Emrich is selling his capes, jackets and children's cloaks at prices regardless of cost in order to clear his stock. He is also selling blankets, dress goods and other dry and fancy goods at proportionately low figures. Now is the time to get bargains.

WASHOE COUNTY SALARIES.

A Proposition to Make Some Changes in a Few Offices.

It is reported that the Washoe county delegation at Carson are considering a proposition to amend the Act regarding the salaries of Washoe county officers passed in the session of 1891. The change, it is understood, will only affect the offices of County Clerk and District Attorney, the salaries of which it is proposed to increase. The salary now paid those two offices, it is alleged, is out of proportion to the amount of work required. The salary of District Attorney and ex-officio Superintendent of Schools in this county, is nine hundred dollars per annum, the smallest salary paid in any county in the State for the same positions, excepting in Nye and Churchill, which counties pay six hundred a year for that service, while the population of the two counties together is less than one fifth that of Washoe, which is now the most populous and wealthy county in the State. The salary paid to the District Attorney in the various counties in the State is as follows, given in the order of their population: Washoe, $900; Storey, $1800; Elko, $1,500; Humboldt, 1,200; Ormsby, $1200 and fees; Lyon, $250; Eureka, $1200; Lincoln, $1,000; Lander, $1,800; Esmeralda, $1,200; White Pine, $1000; Douglas, $800 and fees, Nye, $600; Churchill, $600. The smallest salary is paid in Lyon county, but the office of Superintendent of Schools in that county is attached to the County Recorder, and, it is said, that when legal services are required by the county, outside talent is always employed. There is perhaps as much actual work imposed on the District Attorney of Washoe county as in any other three counties in the State put together and at present the salary is not equal to that paid to the majority of the school teachers in the county. It is a question whether it is economy to pay such a small salary for an office of so much importance as this. If all the duties of the two offices of District Attorney and Superintendent of Schools are properly performed it takes one's entire time, which being of a professional nature requires more pay instead of less. If the District Attorney pays strict attention to his business he can save the county, often times as much as his salary amounts to, and as Superintendent of Schools it is his duty to visit all the schools in the county, besides keeping a record of all its official acts and an account with every school district. If the work is properly performed fifteen hundred dollars would not be too great a compensation for that position in this county. The county should pay a good salary, then insist on good material to fill it.

The salary paid to the County Clerk is $1,200 per annum and the Commissioners can allow an additional $100 a year for a deputy. Last year the Commissioners exceeded this limit and allowed the Clerk $200 in addition to the $100 allowed by law. There is so much work in this office that a deputy is required all the time and the salary as now allowed will not permit of it and allow a decent amount for each. This office largely pays for itself in fees anyway, and if it was so that the Commissioners could allow $600 a year additional instead of $100, the Clerk could afford to keep a deputy, which now he cannot do and leave himself a reasonable salary.

The salaries paid to the other county officers are as follows: Sheriff, 3,000; Assessor, $2,100; Recorder and Auditor, $1,500 and an additional $300 for a deputy. The three Commissioners in all get $1,400 and the Treasurer $1,200 and $100 for a deputy.

From the foregoing it would seem that it would not be out of place to make an increase in the salaries of the two offices before mentioned.

On motion of Comins, there being an extensive amount of work on hand for the various committees, at 11:45 the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at the regular hour.

ASSEMBLY.

Met at 11 A. M., Speaker Allen presiding.

Roll call, prayer by the Chaplain and reading of the Journal as usual.

OBJECTIONABLE.

McNaughton, on question of privilege objected to the statement in the Carson Appeal that his bill reducing the salaries of certain officers at the State Prison was instigated by Republicans. This he denied. He said it was suggested by a Silver party officer, and that moreover it did not reduce the salaries of the guards, as erroneously stated in said paper.

CONTESTED ELECTION.

Wieland, of Committee on Elections, reported a resolution declaring C. F. Murphy of Ormsby the sitting member, entitled to his seat in this body, contested by J. F. Leete, the former having received a majority of the votes cast. On motion of Beck the resolution was adopted.

Newman for Contingent Expense Committee reported Sergeant-at-Arms Flannery's bill for expenses to Winnemucca, $70 50, also the account of L. F. Dunne, Clerk of Humboldt county, for expenses in coming to Carson with the ballots. Referred to Committee of the Whole.

Denton of Lincoln County Delegation reported A B No. 28 favorably, with the request that it be referred to the Judiciary Committee. So ordered.

SENATE MESSAGES.

Substitute for S B No. 5 referred to Senate for correction. Senate Resolution relative to the State Printer correcting errors in bills to be printed. Adopted.

FLANNERY'S "WELL" TAPPED AGAIN.

McNaughton moved to reconsider the vote by which A B No. 14, relative to whisky selling in the Capitol building, was defeated yesterday. He denied being a Prohibitionist, but urged the passage of this bill for the benefit of the rising generation and in the interest of good morals, decency and all that is respectable and commendable.

The question was discussed by Beck, Hogan and Allen of Eureka for the measure, and by Denton and McDonald against it.

The bill was reconsidered by the following vote:

Yeas—Allen of Eureka, Beck, Briggs, Coryell, Court, Flannigan, Francis, Hogan, Leidy, Murphy, McDonald McNaughton, Pitt, Stanley and Mr. Speaker, 16.

Noes—Beals, Brockliss, Conboie, Constant, Denton, Gorman, Greenwood, Hinman, Newman, Noel and Wilson, 11; absent or not voting, Crisler, Hall and Russell, 3.

THE FREE PASS BILL.

McNaughton moved to reconsider the vote by which A B No. 21, the railroad free pass bill, was defeated yesterday. It was advocated by McNaughton, Allen of Eureka and Hogan, and opposed by Denton. Motion to reconsider lost; yeas 9, noes 18.

GROVER AND THE CUCKOOS.

Pitt introduced A C R No. 11. It accuses President Cleveland, aided by the "cuckoo" Democracy, of high crimes and misdemeanors in the financial policy of the Administration, especially relative to the silver question, and declares that the fat man is deserving of impeachment, etc. The resolution in its final passage went through lively with but two dissenting votes, Speaker Allen, and Dr. Hogan, the lone Democrat of this Legislature.

At 12:20 recess was taken till 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

A B No. 47, by Conboie—Relative to issuing commissions to student cadets of the State University. Cadets who have served faithfully and satisfactorily for four years are to have a certificate for the same, to be filed with the Secretary of State by the Governor, who shall recognize their military rank as established by the University. Shall be filed as supernumeraries to be called upon, if required, in the regular service. Also provides for a flagstaff on the campus grounds of the University with weather and display flags. Education.

A B No. 48, by Conboie—To appoint a State Veterinary Surgeon, defining his duty and fixing his compensation. Judiciary.

A B No. 49, by Pitt—To repeal an Act concerning public highways. Judiciary.

A B No. 14, by Wilson—To abolish liquor selling at the State Capitol; lost, failed to pass—13 to 13.

On motion of Allen of Eureka to make it a special order for 2 P. M. to-morrow. Lost.

Conboie moved as amendment that the "well" be abolished on the first day of April next.

Beck spoke strongly against the amendment. This selling of liquor next door to the Assembly chamber is not only illegal but an outrage against the whole community and a disgrace to the State. It was so recognized and suppressed by the Legislature of four years ago and should be by this.

Conboie's amendment was adopted by a vote of 17 to 9, and the bill so amended was ordered re-engrossed.

On motion the House resolved itself into

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Allen of Eureka in the Chair.

The claim of L. F. Dunn, Clerk of Humboldt for expenses, etc., in bringing the ballots of that county at the last general election for use in the Hardin-Francis contest was considered.

On motion it was agreed that when the Committee arise it do so recommending that the claim of Mr. Dunn be laid upon the table. Committee arose.

In regular session the report of the Committee of the Whole was adopted, and the claim of Dunn tabled.

By Allen of Eureka, A. B No. 17—Amendatory of Act to prevent the trespass on real estate of live stock and other matters connected therewith. Makes the owners of such real estate, notably the S. P. Railroad, mark their boundaries and pay taxes thereon before collecting damages for trespass of cattle.

Russell said we have a very good law now in existence and force which is fully sufficient and needs no amendment.

Wieland said he had placed posts deep in the ground to mark boundaries and had them pulled up by trespassers. Plowed furrows could not well be made in a rough country and were not practicable or efficient.

Bill on final passage was lost by a strong majority.

By Gorman, A. B. No. 26—Providing for uniform examination for teachers' certificates. Indefinitely postponed.

By Noel, A. B. No. 22—Prescribing qualifications for Notaries Public. Passed—21 ayes, 6 noes, 3 absent.

By Gorman, A. B. No. 25—To regulate fees in criminal cases in courts of justice. Passed—26 ayes, 4 absent or not voting.

By Wieland, A. B. No. 28—Providing for the establishing of county high schools and the maintenance of the same.

After much discussion the bill was made special order for to-morrow at 2 P. M.

At 4 P. M. Assembly adjourned.

THE GREAT GLOVE CONTEST.

Last evening at the fine stone pavilion of the Agricultural Society, below the State Printing Office, the promised glove contest for $50 a side took place between Billy Beals of Carson and Harry Brown (colored) who hails from Montana and came from Reno. Both are less than thirty years of age, of about the same weight—136 pounds.

The ropes were stretched after the regulation style in the middle of the main hall, forming a "ring" or square enclosure, each side being 24 feet long. There were over 200 spectators present on the floor and in the galleries.

The sport commenced a little after 9 o'clock. By way of preliminary there was a nice little glove scrap of four rounds between Al Bryant and Jim Mullen, two Carson boys. They did first rate, getting in some lively and exhilerating work. Of course neither was expected to knock the other out, so neither was hurt, punished but both came off victorious and refreshed.

The next was the great glove contest. The referee and time keeper were chosen, the Marquis of Queensberry rules read, also the mutual agreement of the parties to fight to a finish for $50 a side, and at 10:10 the contestants stepped forth from their respective corners and shook hands.

IN THE MIDDLE OF THE RING.

Round one—Was a very lively start in, with vigorous exchanges of face, neck and body blows.

Round two—About the same.

Round three—Opened with cautious sparring and closed with lively fighting.

Rounds five and six—Brown got a good one or two on Beals' chest and shoulder; good exchanges were given and there was rushing fights in the corner. Beals seemed to have a little the best of the battle thus far and was the favorite in the betting.

Round seven—Very lively in the start. Brown was rushed to the ropes and partly downed and got a good blow in the neck. The next two rounds however, were easy and nobody hurt.

Round ten—Both came up smiling, fresh and little winded or punished. No very heavy, decisive or fancy hitting thus far. Some lively exchanges were given in this round, winding up with a pretty good one on Brown's mug.

Round thirteen—Some hard hitting was done and Yeals rushed Brown twice to the ropes. This round was in favor of Beals, and for the first time he showed a strong likelihood of winning.

Round sixteen started in with a lively rush from Beals. Brown went down and Beals tumbled over him. Up to the 20th round the mill consisted of occasional good exchanges with nothing decisive.

Round twenty—Both still comparatively fresh and not much punished, and neither having the advantage. They were evidently very equally matched. This was a pretty smart round and closed by Beale being rushed to the ropes for the first time.

Round twenty-two—Fighting rushed and Brown sent rolling on the floor. Ended in cautious sparring. From then to round thirty they sparred cautiously, waved their gloves, looked hard at each other and did more dancing than fighting.

Round thirty—Cold night, no stove and even the fighters getting cold from lack of exercise. Both getting their second wind and dancing cautiously around each other, watching for an opening for a knockout.

Round thirty-two—Both rushed in and tried to warm up with a few good exchanges.

Round thirty six—Still cautious sparring. The referee said if nothing more decisive was done in the next round he would declare it a draw.

Round thirty-seven—Ended in the referee declaring it no contest.

It now being 12:40 everybody adjourned.

The fact is that these two men are known to be game fighters and have so proven themselves, but they are too evenly matched and watchful of each other. It would be almost an accident that would give either the advantage. They are suitable for a protracted contest on a cold night.

Representative Caminnetti of California has introduced a bill granting to the Government all unpatented lands granted any company under the provisions of the Pacific Railroad Acts where such companies failed or refused to redeem the bonds issued to them by the Government. Regarding lands already patented by the companies, but at the time of the default remaining in their possession, the Secretary of the Treasury is directed to take the necessary action required by law to protect the rights of the Government.

Invalid 3 Years, Cured by Hood's

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Gentlemen:—I am glad to tell you that I have been given good health by Hood's Sarsaparilla. For three years I was an invalid, suffering terribly from Nervousness and Lameness.

"I was so nervous I could not bear the least noise, and I had to walk with crutches for six months, as I could not put one of my feet to the floor. Physicians did not do me any good, so a friend told me to get Hood's Sarsaparilla, but

I Said There Was No Use.

"However, after thinking the matter over, I decided to give it a trial, and have taken six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the result is that I am well as any one could wish to be, and can do any kind of work. I advise all my friends to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for I believe it will do them good." Miss SUSIE DODSON, Colton, California.

ECCENTRICITIES OF DICKENS.

His Dread of Railway Traveling—Strange Mirror Antics.

In some interesting "Recollections of Charles Dickens," in The Young Man, his eldest daughter tells how, after the railway accident which befell the novelist in 1865, he often suffered from a feeling of intense dread whenever he found himself in any kind of conveyance:

"One occasion," she says, "I specially recall. While we were on our way from London to our little country station Higham, where the carriage was to meet us, my father suddenly clutched the arms of the railway carriage seat, while his face grew ashy pale, and great drops of perspiration stood upon his forehead, and though he tried to master the dread it was so strong that he had to leave the train at the next station. The accident had left its impression upon the memory, and it was destined never to be effaced."

Miss Dickens, when an invalid, was frequently carried into her father's study and lay quietly on the sofa watching the novelist at work. On these occasions she was sometimes witness of a curious proceeding in which the novelist indulged:

"Suddenly my father would jump from his chair and rush to a mirror which hung near, and in which I could see the reflection of some extraordinary facial contortions which he was making. He returned rapidly to his desk, wrote furiously for a few minutes, and then went again to the mirror. The facial pantomime was resumed, and then, turning toward but evidently not seeing me, he began talking rapidly in a low tone. Ceasing this soon, however, he returned once more to his desk, where he remained silently writing until luncheon time."

It was not till long afterward that Miss Dickens discovered that, with his natural intensity, her father had thrown himself into the character that he was creating, "and that for the time being he had not only lost sight of his surroundings, but had actually become in action, as in imagination, the personality of his pen."

CANALS OF THE FUTURE.

They Will Be Large Enough For the Handling of a Heavy Business.

The history of the struggle between canals of small dimensions and of railroads has been the same in all countries. The first raged bitterly for a number of years, the canals acting on the defensive, although they had as allies the states under whose patronage they were built and operated. The result has been the same in all cases—the unconditional surrender of the canals to the railroads. This, however, is not so much the fault of the systems as of their management. The railroads have great advantages over canals. They are better able to bridge distances both by reason of superior speed and of facilities for overcoming elevations, spanning streams, free from danger of destructive floods, and piercing through the highest mountains, but their great success is mainly due to the fact that they have kept pace with the progress of the world.

Waterways built from the beginning of the eighteenth century to the first quarter of the nineteenth century were regarded ample to meet the requirements of trade at the time they were constructed, and there was in many instances a progressive improvement in their dimensions and appurtenances. But while the industrial, agricultural and commercial developments of the world have advanced to proportions not dreamed of a century ago canals have remained stationary. They are now obsolete and can no longer fulfill the requirements of cheap transportation in competition with railroads. The canals of the future must have the dimensions and the facilities for rapid transport to adapt them to the new conditions of commerce. They must not be barge or boat canals, but ample waterways for the free passage of such ships as are now engaged in carrying the world's trade. Of such canals we have now some important types in successful operation, and others in process of construction or in completion.—Chautauquan

Seedless Fruits and Vegetables.

Writers often express wonder that any fruit or vegetable should be found without seeds, the acme of surprise sometimes being the fact of the case is that seedless objects are met with in almost every variety of fruits and in several kinds of vegetables. An instance which is interested in the apple is Meunscher's Reinette, so named because of both "core" and seed pips being entirely absent.

The Easter pear is a so called seedless variety of that species of fruit, but I believe that abortive seeds are occasionally found in isolated specimens. The "Zante," or seedless currant of the grocery stores, is not a currant at all, but a small species of seedless grape.—St. Louis Republic.
